

American University-Pulitzer Center Campus Consortium International Reporting Fellowship Application 2023

Thank you for your interest in the American University-Pulitzer Center Campus Consortium International Reporting Fellowships!

Each Campus Consortium partner university has a separate application process. This application is specific to American University (AU) in Washington, DC, for the fellowship awarded in spring semester 2023. Please note that students must be currently enrolled in the university to apply for the reporting fellowship.

Contact me, Professor Bill Gentile, for questions at billgentile@billgentile.com

(Name) (Phone/E-mail)

(Name) (Phone/E-mail)

NOTE: As a Campus Consortium sponsor, AU's School of Communication (SOC) and the Pulitzer Center this year will select one student, for a fellowship sponsored by the SOC.

The fellowship winner receives a $3,000 stipend.

1) List your anticipated travel dates and proposed reporting location/itinerary.

2) Provide a preliminary TOTAL budget estimate:
Using the lines below, include a breakdown of the total budget estimate from above. For example, AIRFARE: $600. GASOLINE: $47. MEALS: $81.

_____	: $ _____
_____	: $ _____
_____	: $ _____
_____	: $ _____
_____	: $ _____
_____	: $ _____

Total:

Remember: The fellowship offered is for $3,000.00. If your budget is over that amount, please specify the source of the additional funds.

3) Provide a short description of your proposed project on an under-reported, systemic issue, in the space below or on a separate document (250 words or less). Be sure to indicate whether the project will be print, photo, video or audio – or a combination of the above.

Supplemental descriptive information may also be submitted, but the 250-summary is key.

4) Include your resume and 2-3 recent samples of your work. Please include links to your photo or video samples.

5) It would greatly assist us if applicants submit a list of any other plausible distribution avenues, aside from the Pulitzer Center, they are considering for their reporting.

6) One letter of recommendation. This letter may be submitted by one of the three persons you've listed above as a reference. The letter should explain the recommender's relationship with you (for example professor, advisor); it should address your skills and your ability to complete the project you've proposed.

Students must submit electronic applications to Professor Bill Gentile no later than midnight of Friday 31 March 2023. Late submissions will not be accepted. No exceptions.

Please send electronic applications to billgentile@billgentile.com.

We expect to announce the fellowship winner by mid-April, 2023.

Please contact me with questions.
